The HAY Center Housing Continuum allows youth to find safe, stable housing in order to assist in meeting their educational, employment and mental health goals.

o Bridge Housing is a program that provides youth with a rent-free place to live while youth participate in intensive case management, wrap-around services and life skills training. Youth work towards obtaining employment and/or training to gain marketable job skills, while preparing to live independently.

o Housing Options is a public/private venture between the HAY Center, the HAY Center Foundation, and the Houston Housing Authority. Youth are provided with housing vouchers provided by the Houston Housing Authority. The HAY Center Foundation provides deposits, first month's rent, utility assistance, and other expenses needed for youth to move into an apartment. Youth work with staff to gain employment, education, and essential life skills. The goal is that youth will be prepared to obtain their own housing and live independently.
